OF FOUR YOUTHS

Sunday.

Times-Dispatch Bureau,
5 Boilingbrook Street,
(Telephone 1455),
Petersburg, Va., November 28.
The more that is heard of the four young highwaymen who were sent to the penitentiary from this city last week, the blacker their records appoar. Detective James J. Merkley, of Reading, Pa., the home of most of the men, arrived in the city this morning to get all the information he could about their work in Virginia, and later lett for Richmond to interview them in the penitentiary. He personally knows some of the men, and is familiar with the records of all of them, about which he tells an interesting story. There were, he says, originally seven men in the gang. Between the 1st and 10th of November they operated extensively in Berks county, holding up and robbing hotel proprietors and guests, and securing some $400 or $500 in money, watches and other valuables. These robberies were of almost daily occurrence, and caused widespread alarm and excitement. They always operated the or four together, and resistance was out of the question. And then occurred the murder of Gordon Kauffman, at unprovoked a crime as was ever committed in Reading, by the four men now in the penttentiary. The gang was forced by this act to leave Reading. They went to Philadelphia, where they separated into two parties—four and three, respectively. The latter party has not been heard from, but they are supposed to be in Charleston or Savannah, to which points the four were making their way when arrested at Weidon on request of the Petersburg authorities. For the Kauffman murder there is a reward of $1,500 for the arrest of the perpetrators. What will be done with this money since the murderers are in the Virginia Penitentiary for another crime, is not known, and it is also unknown what they have done with all the money they stole. A very small sum was found on them when arrested. Watches stolen in Berks county, Baltimore, Richmond and Petersburg were recovered from them.

No effort will be made to have the prisoners surrendered to the jurisdic-

No effort will be made to have the prisoners surrendered to the jurisdiction of Pennsylvania for trial for the crime of murder.

Mortunry and Birth Report.

The report of the Health Department for the month ending November 26 shows a total of forty-nine deaths in the city—nincteen among the white population and thirty among the colored. Of the decedents, twelve were under five years old and four were eighty years. Thirteen death were certined by the coroner, nine bodies were shipped away, and sixteen were brought from other points to the were brought from other points to the city for burial. There was one death from suicide, one case of homicide four deaths of tuberculosis, and one of typhoid fever. The rate of mortality was much lower in comparison with previous months, though the mortality among the colored race continues high The number of births reported dur-ing the month was forty-five-whites.

Husband Who Threatens Suicide Hands
Wife Revolver.

Steubenville, O., November 28.—"Send for a doctor, quick," exclaimed William McVey, just after his wife had fired a bullet near his heart from a revolver with which a moment before he had announced his 'intention of ending his own life. McVey died twenty minutes later, and his wife is being heid to await the coroner's inquest.
The tragedy occurred at their home
in the presence of two young daughters.

in the presence of two young daughters.

There are said to have been differences between McVey and his wife regarding the amount of money he turned over to her from his income as a convent agent for a publishing house. general agent for a publishing hous McVey often complained of poor busi-ness, but 'n investigation by his wife is said to have disclosed that he was prospering. McVey began again to comment on the small returns from his work, and drawing a revolver from his pocket remarked that he might as well end everything at once."
"That revolver wouldn't shoot any one," laughed Mrs. McVey, "Look at it and see," returned the husband.

Mrs. MoVey examined the weapon and saw that it was loaded. Turning the muzzle in the direction of her husband, she pressed the trigger. was a flash and McVey fell, dying.
"You have shot me!" gasped the

This afternoon he made a bried speech in the Jefferson Hall, in which he defined the different attitudes of the Democratic and Republican parties on the tariff. He said the American people seldom wake up and pay attention to tariff matters. One of these occasions is at hand.

"We must not take up side issues. The Democratic party must write on its flag tariff for rovenue only. If we do, we will win that battle from Maine to California."

Congressman Undorwood dined with Prosident Alderman and left for Washington on the 7 o'clock train.
